3. The Clause 11 will be change for the following:

11. THE JURIES, VOTING AND PRIZES

11.1 Jury

A Committee composed by representatives of Municipality of Viña del Mar and TVN and Canal 13 will designate a unique jury for the international and the folkloric competition. The jury shall consist of 8 members, and a additional 9th vote from a web application or other technology as indicated by the production team. All of them will determine the winning songs of the contest in the Quinta Vergara.

The members of the jury will vote through an electronic system in order to make public the grades to the audience in Quinta Vergara and the artists. There will be one (1) hidden vote from one member of the jury that will change daily. These grades are not going to be averaged with the rest of the votes. At the end of this phase, the results, previously notarized, will be given to the hosts.

The final vote of the jury in the Quinta Vergara shall be certified by a public notary.

11.2 Qualification and selection of winners

Each Member of the jury will qualify the artists with notes from 1 to 7, during the transmission. It may include decimals numbers.

In the finals of the international competition, only three (3) songs will be presented with the best average score obtained by the jury's qualification, between the six (6) participating songs. They will be qualified live by the jury with the voting electronic system already mentioned in these regulations in the point 11.1 precedent.

The Song that gets the best score during the final night of the international competition will be the winner of the competition.

In case there is a tie in the selection of the finalists or in the finals, the President of the jury will decide live and directly to the public and artists, who will be the finalists and/or the winner.

Any Decision and/or qualification of the jury will be definitive and may not be impugned by the participants.
